CITY IN BRIEF.

The Governor has signed twenty-five House and twelve Senate bills this far.

John Moriarty, a man with no arms, was arrested yesterday afternoon for drunkenness.

Albert Blake was arrested at the Union Depot yesterday on a charge of soliciting passengers.

The Insane Hospital authorities yesterday drew $21,567.62 for maintenance and $2,838.84 for clothing.

The Mayor yesterday fined Kate Miller and David Malloy for cohabiting at 81 South Illinois street.

The police were called yesterday to take charge of Edie Reynolds, who was lying in a line car near the work-house suffering from exposure.

Frank L. Turner satisfied the police authorities yesterday that he did not obtain money by false pretenses of South Illinois street parties.

The members of the Mission Church have filed remonstrance against the granting of a liquor license to Henry Seyfried, of 211 West McCarty street.

The driver of an express wagon was run over by his own wagon, yesterday, on West Washington street, and badly hurt. His name could not be learned.

James Wicks, while under the influence of intoxicants yesterday afternoon, attempted to clean out a North Illinois street tailor shop. He was locked up by Patrolman Dawson.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

Mr. Bailey's Liquor Bill Indefinitely Postponed in the Senate.

Another Ineffective Effort to Call Up the Appropriation Bill.

An Extra Session of the Legislature Considered No Longer Problematical.

The Senate Indorses Mr. Cleveland's Inaugural—Governor Gray Vetoes the Militia Bill.

Senator Duncan's bill, which provides for the election of but two County Commissioners at the same time and fixes the terms of the same, was passed by the House yesterday.

Mr. Patten made another effort yesterday afternoon to call up the Appropriation bill, but the House again refused to consider it. Mr. Patten's energy in this regard is certainly commendable, though unappreciated by the House.

Representative Krenger's resolution, proposing an amendment to the State Constitution, fixing the terms of all county officers except the Surveyor at four years, and making them ineligible for re-election, was passed by the House yesterday by a practically unanimous vote.

The bill appropriating $55,618 to John Martin for work done on the Insane Hospital came up yesterday morning on the third reading, and a lengthy discussion ensued. The bill failed to pass for want of a constitutional majority, but in the afternoon was taken from the table and passed.

Senator Bailey's liquor bill was called up yesterday morning and read a second time. Senators McIntosh, Magee and Hilligass spoke against extending the hours in which saloons may be kept open. Senator Winter spoke against the bill, declaring that neither Democrats nor Republicans were in favor of the bill. The further consideration of the measure was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 25 to 19.

The bill to pay Mrs. Edwin May $10,000 came up in the House yesterday afternoon on a second reading. Mr. Gordon moved to amend by making the amount $1,000, but this was voted down. Mr. Gooding moved to amend by making the appropriation $6,000. This amendment was also voted down. Mr. Brown then moved to take out the enacting clause and this was followed by a motion to lay Brown's motion on the table. The motion prevailed and the bill was passed to a third reading.

The indications yesterday pointed unmistakably to an extra session, and among a number of Senators and Representatives who were consulted by the reporter for "views," not one harbored an opinion that an extra session would not be held. It is understood that Governor Gray is opposed to such an event, but he confesses that the members should not go home without passing the Appropriation and Knightstown House bills. A petition was circulated yesterday, asking the Executive to call the Legislature to special session, and pledging the body to adjourn in twelve days.

Lieutenant Governor Manson yesterday presented a communication to the Senate from E. C. Nowles, an engrossing clerk and an employee of the Assistant Secretary, saying that he had been charged with a warrant for $45, drawn January 16, which sum Mr. Nowles says he never received. He says that he never authorized Huffstetter nor any other person to sign his name on such a document, or to draw such money. He asks that the Senate instruct the present Assistant Secretary to issue a warrant to him for the sum of $45. A committee consisting of Senators Sellers, Youche and Winter was appointed to investigate the matter.

The Governor yesterday signed the redistricting bill, being entitled "an act to fix the number of Senators and Representatives to the General Assembly, and to apportion the same among the several counties, and repealing all laws in conflict with the same," and "an act to divide the State into Congressional Districts." The following were also signed and are now laws: An act empowering voluntary associations to establish houses for the care of aged females; an act appropriating $20,000 to the Indiana University; an act providing means for securing the health and safety of employees of coal mines; an act authorizing township authorities to bridge over streams forming the boundary line; an act fixing the time of holding court in the Fourth Judicial Circuit.

INFORMING THE INAUGURAL. Senator Fouke yesterday introduced a resolution indorsing the sentiments contained in the following extract from the inaugural address of President Cleveland in regard to civil service, and pledging unequalled support in the enforcement of the principle so declared:

"The people demand reform in the administration of the Government and the application of business principles to public affairs. As a means to this end civil service reform should be enforced. Our citizens have the right to protection from the incompetency of public employees who hold their places solely as the reward of party service, and from the corruptive influence of those who expect such rewards, and those who would seek public employment have thought to insist that merit and competency shall be recognized instead of party subservience or the surrender of honest public belief in the administration of a Government pledged to do equal and exact justice to all men."

Senator Smith, of Jennings, moved to amend by adding the words, "and we concur in the sentiment of the whole message," which was accepted by Mr. Fouke. Senator Willard then offered a substitute as follows:

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the President of the United States.

The substitute was adopted by a vote of 29 to 11.

THE MILITIA BILL VETOED.

The Governor yesterday returned the Militia bill to the Senate with his veto message in which he stated fully his objections to the bill. The message is as follows:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
INDIANAPOLIS, MARCH 6, 1885.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE—Senate bill No. 88, "an act supplemental to an act entitled 'An act for the organization and regulation of the militia,' was presented to me yesterday, March 5, 1885, for my approval, which is respectfully returned to the House in which it originated, with my objections."

While I recognize the importance of some additional legislation looking to a more perfect organization of the militia of the State and the necessity of the State extending by proper appropriation, aid for its support yet I am constrained to return this bill, on account of constitutional and other objections. The appropriations contained in the bill, and any authorized expenditure from the military contingent fund, would, in my judgment, be insufficient to a practical and successful execution of the law. While the burden of taxation falls so heavily upon our people, the financial condition of the State is not such as to warrant the outlay at the present, or in the future, necessary for such an organization of the militia of the State as contemplated by this act. If, however, I were to waive this objection, I still can not give my approval to the bill, on account of grave constitutional objections.

Section 53 of the act provides "that any member of the militia who shall fail to attend any drill, parade or encampment, or any other duty when ordered, shall be fined, and the commanding officer is authorized and directed, if such fine is not paid seven days after notice, to issue his warrant for the amount of the fine therein named, and deliver said warrant to the sheriff or deputy sheriff, Town or City Marshal, or any Constable in the town or township where the delinquent resides, and such warrant shall be levied upon the goods and chattels of the delinquent, and the sheriff or other named shall be collected without relief from valuation, appraisal or exemption laws."

This is a very summary and arbitrary mode of collecting a fine, and, contrary to the spirit of our institutions, it makes no provision for either a Judge jury or trial. It makes the judgment of the officer final and denies the right of the delinquent to the benefits of the laws accorded to all in other cases.

Section 56 provides "that any person who shall fail, refuse or neglect to deliver and return the books, blanks, arms or equipments, or other military property and devices the right of the delinquent to the benefits of the laws accorded to all in other cases."

Section 59 provides "that any member of the organization who shall conduct himself in a disorderly manner, incite any riot or tumult, or shall be guilty of drunkenness, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $50 or be imprisoned in the county jail for not exceeding ten days, at the discretion of the court or jury trying the offender, said fines named in this and preceding sections of the act to be imposed, collected and paid to the treasury of the county to which delinquent or offender belongs, for the use and benefit of such company."

Section 72 provides "that all fines and penalties for any violation of this act, except as otherwise specially provided, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the county in which such fines and penalties are assessed, and shall be paid by the County Treasurer to the Treasurer of State at the time such officer makes his annual settlement, and such sums of money so realized shall be by the Treasurer of State set apart as a portion of the military fund of the State, for the sole use and benefit of the active militia of the State, to be paid out and expended on the order of the Governor."

In my opinion, the disposition sought to be made of the money realized from the fines in the foregoing sections divests the same from the common school fund to a military fund, and is contrary to the provisions of Section 2, Article 8, of the Constitution. It is provided in said Section 2, Article 8, of the Constitution, "that all fines assessed for benefits of the penal laws of the State shall constitute a part of the common school fund."

For the foregoing reasons, and others that might be given, I can not give my sanction to the bill. It is not conspicuous for brevity; it contains seventy-five sections, and its extreme length has prevented me from giving it a more extended review.

ISAAC P. GRAY, Governor.

The veto was sustained by the Senate by a vote of 35 to 6.
